IDAHO

For the week of Jre 3-9, 2007

'Army Wives'

Catch it at 8 p.m. Sunday on Lifetime

BEST BETS: NASCAR Racing: Jamie MMurray competes in the Dover 400. 11 a.m. Surbay on Fox

Creature Comforts

Animals say the darndest things. That's the premise of this goofy new series from the folks behind Wallace and Gromit. Ordinary people are interviewed on everyday subjects such as fove, health, secrets and lies, and wine.

7 p.m. Monday on CBS

America's Got Talent

It's no "American Idot," but this competition series garnered a decent audience during its Inst season. It's back for more with a new host, Jerry Springer, replacing Regis Philbin. 8 p.m. Tuesday on NBC

American Inventor

America votes on the winner, and Simon Cowell is involved. But that's all this series, returning for a second season, has in common with "American Idol," It's seeking the next great gadget or gizmo. A panel of judges includes George Foreman. 8 p.m. Wednesday on ABC

Smallville

Lex (Michael-Rosenbaum) throws a party for the town to make up for all the damage he did as Zod. It's a costume ball for charity with a special appearance by the band All-American Rejects. Clark and Chloe are a little distracted from the festivities. 7 p.m. Thursday on CW

Bones

Their name isn't Peterson, but the story told in "The Mother and Child in the Bay" will definitely remind you of a certain notorious murder case Irom a few years back. Brennan and Booth investigate the deaths of a woman and child.

7 p.m. Friday on Fox

COVER STORY

'Army Wives' aren't 'Desperate'

By Jeff Pfeiffer © Zap2it

"It's not that show at all," says Catherine Bell, dismisssays Catherme Bell, dismissing early criticism that ber new Lifetime series, "Army Wives," is simply "Desperate Housewives" set on an Army base. "It's really just about people, dealing with things that real people deal with, as well as with the added drama of what the Army would deal of what the Army would deal

The hourlong drama, pre-miering Sunday, June 3, focus-es on the lives of four whom es on the lives of four women and one man, all of whom with one thing in common: they have a significant other, who could be killed at any moment. They are Claudia Joy (Kim Delaney), the alpha wife of the group, married to a colonel (Brian McNamara); Denise (Bell) stayathome Denise (Bell), stay-at-home mom and wife of a major; Pamela (Brigid Brannagh), a former police officer whose status as a surrogate parent, if found out, could get her ostracized from the group,
